

Director, Fund Development

The Good Samaritan Society (GSS) is a leading faith-based, not-for-profit, registered charity in Western Canada that provides quality accommodations, health, and community care services and programs to aging individuals in need. With over 67 years of experience providing specialized health and community care services in innovative and caring environments, our operational effectiveness and overarching culture of service and care make us the provider of choice for individuals and their families seeking a supporting place to call home.

Based in Edmonton, Alberta, the primary responsibility of the Director, Fund Development is to lead the fund development and fund raising activities of The Good Samaritan Society in a capital campaign environment. You will be responsible for development and implementing innovative strategies that distinguish The Good Samaritan Society in the sponsorship and philanthropy marketplace. The Director, Fund Development will also play an integral role in cultivating donor relationships and will be actively engaged in the community.

As the successful candidate, you will have a university degree in an area such as commerce, public relations or not-for-profit management. The incumbent will have significant and direct experience in several aspects of fund development with a priority on annual fund planning, major gifts and capital campaigns. If this sounds like you, and you would like to learn more about the opportunity, please contact our office at 403-410-6700 or email albertaopportunities@boyden.com